CLOWNING AROUND

There were plenty of clowns on Minden's Main Street Saturday as the community turned out to watch the annual Haliburton County Fall Fair parade. The chap on the right received a mixed reaction from the children on the curb as he introduced them to his pet. Meanwhile, his companion, left, had trouble keep his bicycle together. For more photos from Saturday's parade see page 16 and next week's edition of The Times.

South Water Street work set for Sept. 7

The reconstruction of South Water Street is scheduled to begin on September 7. Public Works Superintendent Clayton Cameron said he is comfortable with the recommendations of the consultants regarding tenders for materials needed for the project when he reported on the Anson, Hindon and Minden council meeting August 12.

Construction will begin at the Highway 35 end of the street so the disruption in the downtown core will be as short a duration as possible.

The target date for completion of the project is mid-November.

Fair Ambassador

Competition: This year's Fair Ambassador competition may have been light in numbers but was big on pride for Haliburton County. Answering the question "Will I live in Haliburton County after I graduate", competitors responded with a resounding yes.

Last year's junior ambassador Naomi Stephenson invited the contestants to participate in the junior fair board and help to make the next fair a huge success.

A good year for the Federation of Naturalists

Haliburton Highlands Field Naturalists President Irena Durling has stepped down after five years in the lead position. The group held its annual meeting August 14 at Snowdon Park.

"I've thoroughly enjoyed being your president," said Durling. She noted that because of her work with the Field Naturalists, she had become involved with the Stewardship Council, as well as the FON, (Federation of Ontario Naturalists). She has also enjoyed the work the group has done over the past few years with Snowdon Park.

Durling is the FON representative for another two years. The group endorsed a formal motion thanking Durling for all of her efforts over the years with the naturalists. She will now take the position of past president on the board of directors.

Looking into incorporation

A committee has been struck to look into the pros and cons of incorporating the organization. Several members recounted that this concept had been discussed a few years ago and the group was quite divided on the issue.

Questions of liability protection offered by the incorporation process were brought up by the membership. "There has been a lot of talk over the subject of liability," said Irena Durling, who told the group that the FON had released several waiver forms from various naturalists groups in the province.

Secretary Jan Warfield noted that the Trails and Tours Network had recently incorporated and it was relatively inexpensive. Sheila Ziman suggested a committee be struck to look into the idea and how it would affect the group and its operation. Several members will meet and report back to the group on their findings.

A good year

Interesting meetings and outings made for a good year for the Field Naturalists. Irena Durling thanked the program committee for inviting informative speakers to their monthly meetings as well as co-ordinating exciting adventure outings throughout the county. She also reported that membership was strong, and that membership fees would remain at the same level as last year.

New Board of Directors

The new board of directors was approved for the coming year, however, a new president has not yet been named. For the next year, the group will experiment with a rotating chair of its meetings, and leave the position of president open. Irena Durling will act as past president and Sheila Ziman will act as the co-ordinator of the rotating chairs.

The question of liability insurance and whether it would be affected by the lack of a president was raised. The new board will be looking into this. The rest of the board includes Barry Withers Treasurer, Jan Warfield Secretary, Jean Clarke Membership, Brenda Chambers Snowdon Park. Other positions include Aileen Coates and Mike Darlington, the program committee, Peter and Margaret Brogden, co-chairs of the board, and Karin Finnigan, social events and the FON representative.

A helping hand

The boardwalks at Snowdon Park have never looked better, thanks to the Ontario Stewardship Rangers. The ranger program is a collaborative effort of the Stewardship Council and the Ministry of Natural Resources. The students have worked in a variety of different venues, such as Snowdon Park, Glebe Park, the Burnt - Irondale River project, the Drag River Rehabilitation Project, Silent Lake and Petroglyphs Provincial Parks, just to name a few. The Stewardship rangers include, from the left, Adrian Rawlings, Lindsey Robertson, Nicholas Fawcett, Naomi Stephenson, Jesse Loughheed and Dan Morgan.

Making the Highlands paddle-friendly

Suggestions and ideas were flowing fast from the minds of canoe and outdoors enthusiasts at a recent canoe forum, hosted by the Haliburton Highlands Trails and Tours Network. The discussion ranged from canoe trips in years past to the future of canoe routes and the marketing of Haliburton County as a canoe destination.

"We consider canoe routes water trails and we consider them to be a major asset to the county," said Jan Warfield, co-ordinator of the Trails and Tours Network.

The network hosted the forum, at Club 35, to obtain an understanding of what the various users would like to see happen to canoe routes and destinations in the area. As well the committee hopes to help co-ordinate a canoeing group in the area, similar to a snowmobile association or cycling club.

These types of clubs and associations are becoming increasingly important as the provincial government looks for partnership agreements to help maintain portage routes and access points. Dave Johnson, of the Ministry of Natural Resources, who, after a short time away from the area will be returning to the Minden office, said that as government priorities change more partnerships will have to be fostered. "At one time there was dedicated staff for maintenance," said Johnson. He said that groups such as the Hawk and Halls Lake Cottagers Association which monitors the usage of areas for the ministry are the way of the future.

Having spent many years at Camp Kandalore and the Leslie Frost Centre, Craig MacDonald knows a thing or two about the canoe routes in the Highlands. MacDonald, now the recreation director of Algonquin park, explained how canoeing has changed over the years in the area and where some of the more interesting routes and portages that can be found.

MacDonald has been canoe tripping in the area since the mid-fifties. "Over that time I've seen an enormous change," he said. Among these changes he listed the size of cottages along the waterfront, changes in government responsibilities and reduced access. "Despite all of this, there are still lots of good places (to canoe) in Haliburton County," said MacDonald.

The conversation took a historical turn as MacDonald explained that many of the canoe and portage routes were formally sought out after the War of 1812. Some routes are steeped in even greater history as they have been used as aboriginal hunting and travel routes.

MacDonald feels that proper signage and greater enforcement is the key to keeping areas such as the Frost Centre camping and canoe areas maintained and clean. He even suggested making certain areas "pack out zones" where travellers must bring out everything they brought in.

The discussion moved into an open forum and several main topics emerged including user pay camping and canoe fees, private versus public ownership of access, liability, the lack of camping along canoe routes, non-resident or back country fees, trail etiquette, fund raising, promotion and marketing, getting more people involved in canoeing, multi-use canoe routes and many more. The issue of garbage and proper etiquette on trails and canoe routes appeared to be a serious concern among residents and cottagers alike. They feel many large groups or camp groups have little respect for the environment.

For those who avidly paddle through the lakes, rivers and streams of Haliburton County, the Trails and Tours Network is seeking their assistance in the creation of a trail database. This would be a comprehensive survey, outlining campsites, terrain, locations, conditions, access and many other features. The information would be added to a database the Network is compiling. These details will be available to guide people to the various areas throughout the county where hiking, biking, canoeing and activities would be available.

Sharing the responsibility

Editorial

There are many things that make the Haliburton Highlands a great place. The area is blessed with some of the most accessible wilderness in the province. Gentle rolling terrain dotted with lakes and rivers means there are few places which are so pleasing to the eye and the proximity to urban areas to the south means the delights of the big city are close, but not too close. These physical attributes are enhanced by friendly, welcoming communities with a full range of goods and services. Among these attributes are the health care services and facilities, currently undergoing a major upgrade and improvement.

This upgrade of health care facilities will help ensure the future of our communities. However, these changes come with a responsibility shared by everyone who enjoys the Highlands. The close to $20 million expenditure in hospital and long-term care construction projects, which have been long anticipated and needed, will provide facilities to serve our communities for years to come.

The community has accepted responsibility for $5.5 million in construction costs. Some have suggested that this amount is beyond the reach of a community this size. We disagree. The public portion of the fund raising has surpassed the halfway mark with close to $3 million donated or pledged. However, we are also aware that reaching the campaign goal in the next year or two will not be a simple task.

As the summer season slowly fades into autumn, the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Foundation is looking for a boost to carry its fund-raising into the new year. Specifically, the campaign committee is seeking for pledges of support from those individuals who enjoy the area on a seasonal basis. Direct contributions to the campaign are needed as are long-term commitments. There are any number of ways an individual or family can help this effort. Planned giving, timed over five years, the purchase of annuities or insurance policies payable to the foundation, or bequests in wills are just some of the ways to ensure the future of quality health care in the Highlands.

So, before closing the cottage this fall or heading south for warmer climes, consider leaving something behind to help make this dream become a reality. Contact the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Foundation (see page two for the address) and do your part to make the Highlands a great place to live and enjoy, today, tomorrow and for years to come.

Just a suggestion

Editor:

Mr. O'Reilly here is a suggestion for you and your government.

Rescind Bill C-68 immediately. You may find close to a billion dollars that could be used in far more useful ways than leaning on honest tax paying gun owners.

The money could be used by the provinces and territories to hire more police officers is one idea that comes to mind.

Horse talk

Editor:

I was dismayed at reading the article in the Aug 16 edition of The Times entitled "Defining 'Nothing'" which quoted an excerpt from a Car Guide called "Exploring Eastern Ontario" by Mr. Michael LaFave.

His definition of Norland and the Norland Trading Post (by the way Mr. LaFave, it's "Norland Trading Company") as a pit stop for hunters and so they carry everything these brave, gun toting soles (sic) need."

Obviously Mr. LaFave's major claim to fame is his ability to sleep with his eyes open and be oblivious to the beauty of this pristine landscape and the wonderful people who reside and vacation here.

I'm sure he is convinced his assessment of our customers is very accurate; believable; sort of 'straight from the horse's mouth', but I suggest that in any of his future articles his readers might wish to 'define' which end of the horse is really doing the talking.

Owner Norland Trading Company

EDITOR'S NOTE: Further to the article and editorial which appeared on this page last week: Several people have suggested we were unfair in not pointing out that the day the author of the article which appeared in Car Guide magazine visited the Chamber of Commerce information booth, was the day after the former manager of the Chamber was arrested by the police. Furthermore the travel counsellors had only been on the job for three days.

In an impressive display of precision driving, the members of the Ontario Provincial Police Golden Helmets took over Minden's Main Street Saturday morning. Looking for vets who served in Great Britain

Editor:

My name is Jason Orendorff, and I am from Newmarket, Ontario. Right now, I am in the United Kingdom, working on a master's degree in history at the University of Edinburgh. My field of interest is the British homefront during the Second World War. More particularly, the relations between the Canadian soldiers and the British civilians.

Upon the conclusion of this degree, I plan to extend my research into book form. I have already been in contact with both the Ministries of Multiculturalism and Veteran's Affairs.

However, for any of this to be even remotely successful, I need a way to contact, en masse, any vets who live in your area of distribution. This is where I need your help. The British newspapers have been most kind. But, now, I must also tell the other half of the story-by recounting the soldiers memoirs.

As you probably are aware, there were over 368,000 Canadian soldiers stationed in southern England for the greater part of the war, so I think that this will get an enthusiastic response from your readers. Unfortunately, not much of this story has been recorded to date. We should do something about this while we still can.

Chip shot

Very few blacks will take up the sport of golf until the requirement for plaid pants is dropped.

Anon.

Golf. What a peculiar way to spend one's leisure time. Hunting and fishing, I can understand. Birdwatching is reasonable. Stamp collecting, wildlife photography — even train-spotting kind of makes sense.

But golf?? A pastime that encourages participants to dress like Moscow pimps, wear goofy shoes with thumb tacks on the bottom, and ride around in a motorized dustbin all afternoon in the heat of the midday sun whacking a little white ball until it disappears down a hole?

Golf. The very name sounds like a throat obstruction.

The funniest thing I know about golf is how seriously some golfers take it. Your typical golf fanatic thinks nothing of rising at dawn and creeping from the house like a commando to make his/her way to the clubhouse, there to prepare the clubs and woods as carefully and reverently as Achilles selecting spears and arrows for the siege of Troy.

Committed golfers approach the first green like Montgomery surveying Alamein. They monitor the wind, the relative humidity. The amount of dew on the grass. The length of the grass. The nap of the grass.

Folks— we are talking about knocking a ball into a hole using sticks, here. It ain't Quantum Physics.

But Hell hath no fury and humanity hath no stubbornness like a dedicated golfer. Last month (true story, folks) a golfer on the second hole of the Metairie Country Club course was shot in a drive-by shooting.

No big deal. The second hole isn't far from a highway. Some redneck in a truck decided to take some target practice and drilled the guy as he was preparing to tee off. Shot him in the right hip. The news story contains a kicker: "The shooting did not stop other golfers en route to the second hole, who slowed to watch the scene, but then moved on."

That's how it is with truly dedicated golfers. Reminds me of the story of the golfer shipwrecked on a desert island for ten years, when suddenly one day — a gorgeous woman washes ashore.

She was tattered and dishevelled, but she was clutching a watertight suitcase. Turned out she was the sole survivor of a cruise ship that had foundered on a coral reef. As grateful as she was to have survived, the woman was amazed at the golfer's story.

"You've been marooned here for ten years?" she marvelled.

"It's true" admitted the castaway. Did you used to smoke? she asked.

"You bet" says the man. "Why?"

"Well I'm pleased to offer you your first cigarette in ten years." With a smile, the woman pulled a package of Player's Filter from her bag.

"Wow! Thanks a lot!" says the man.

"And were you a drinking man?" asked the woman.

"I've been known to enjoy a glass or two" said the man.

"Here you go" says the woman, hauling a flask of five-star brandy out of her suitcase.

The guy takes a swig of brandy.

"Say" says the woman, "It must be ten years since you, uh...you know."

The golfer's jaw drops. His eyes bug out.

"Don't tell me..." he gasps.

"You mean you've got a set of golf clubs in that bag?"

A WIRY ARTIST: Wire Sculptor Charles O'Neil demonstrated his unusual skill in Minden on August 14. Each week a different artist can be seen in both Minden and Haliburton, as part of the Visual Arts committee endeavour to showcase local talent. Adult day care now offered in Minden

-submitted-

VON Peterborough, Victoria, and Haliburton branch has announced that it is expanding the Adult Day Centre program in Haliburton County. The program will now be offered in Minden as well as Haliburton.

The newest VON Adult Day Centre opens Thursday, September 9 at St. Paul's Anglican Church in Minden. The centre, which will operate each Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., offers an interesting and enjoyable day of activities for adults living in the community who are in need of social, physical or mental stimulation.

Participants have the opportunity to enjoy a day in the company of others, a hot lunch and the chance to take part in a variety of activities from exercises, games and crafts to wood-working, music and special events.

The cheery, home-like atmosphere of VON's Adult Day Centres and the caring staff and volunteers help each individual feel secure in their surroundings and help promote the independence and quality of life of every participant.

Family care givers are given the opportunity for a regular day of respite to relax and concentrate on their own well-being.

The addition of the Adult Day centre in Minden brings the total number of VON Day Centres to four. The others are located in Peterborough, Lindsay, and Haliburton.

VON's Haliburton Adult Day Centre will be re-locating at the end of August, due to renovations at the Echo Hills Apartments. As of September first, the Day Centre will operate each Wednesday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Haliburton County Home Support in its new location in The Halco Plaza.

To check if you were one of the successful applicants, call 1-800-275-6657. Have your outdoors card handy and by entering the number from your card, the system will confirm whether or not you were successful. If you were successful and haven't received your tag in the mail by August 27, contact your local MNR office.

A total of 103,494 hunters applied for Ontario adult moose tags and 17,455 tags were issued. Almost 65 per cent of the groups of hunters that applied were successful (5,877 group tags were issued). That compares to 5,690 successful group applications last year.

Council wants say in sculpture placement

cation for millennium funding for a sculpture in Minden. It has been suggested that the Village Green would be a good location, but council agreed with councillor Daryl Moore when he raised the concern that a sculpture there might interfere with other uses of the area. The Ontario Timbersport Championships, the Minden Sled Dog Derby and the Heineken Yard Foot Race are among the groups which have utilized the Village Green in the past.

"We haven't even had time to have public consultations about what to do with the Village Green yet," said Reeve Jeanne Anthon.

Council gave its approval with the provision that it be involved in the decision making as to the site selection and the type of sculpture chosen.

Driver charged

The following report was issued by the Haliburton Highlands detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police.

Police investigated an incident on Highway #35 in Minden August 12.

Following a routine RIDE check, officers arrested Ronald Norman, 39 of Dysart Township. The man was charged with impaired operation of a motor vehicle and having a blood/alcohol level over the legal limit. Norman will appear in Minden court on October 6.

Toll booth

The Minden Minor Hockey Association was granted approval to hold a voluntary toll booth on the bridge in Minden on Saturday, October 9.

Second phone line

The OPP satellite office in downtown Minden will have a second telephone line, compliments of the municipality. The office wasn't being used to its potential, partly because the single telephone line didn't allow officers to use the computer and still be available for telephone communications.

The cost of a second commercial line is about $40 per month and installation will cost about $45.

Ball diamond improvements

The ball diamond at the north-east corner of the Minden fairgrounds will be improved at the request of the Minden Lob Ball League. The League will be providing the material (crushed limestone) and some volunteer labour for the infield and the municipality will contribute equipment and labour to the project.

The work will be completed before the Lob Ball Association's annual wrap-up tournament in September.

Work is expected to begin this week.

Clayton Cameron estimated the municipality's cost to be $500, including equipment and labour.

Meeting will consider legal clinic for county

Individuals interested in a community legal clinic for Haliburton County will have an opportunity to express their support and concerns this Wednesday evening.

The meeting is the continuation of two held recently in Lindsay at which the possibility of creating a clinic to serve the two counties has been discussed. A number of representatives from the county attended the meetings. It is hoped that holding a meeting in the county will attract others who are interested in becoming involved.

While not a legal aid clinic, it has been suggested that the service could direct individuals to professionals who can assist with their problems.

The meeting will be held Wednesday, August 25, in the former municipal council chamber, on the second floor, starting at 7:30 p.m.

ARROW AUTHOR: Peter Zuuring, author of The Arrow Scrapbook, signs a copy of his book for Michael Turriff, whose father once worked on the project. Zuuring was autographing his books at Under Cover Books in Haliburton August 7. The Arrow Scrapbook is a detailed analysis of the story of the Avro Arrow and some of the myths that have stemmed from the creation and subsequent destruction of the experimental aircraft.

Boating licence classes offered

With the changes in boating regulations which came into force this year, many people have been wondering where courses for the mandatory licencing are taking place.

A number are being offered by the Power Squadron and similar organizations in urban areas. However, courses are now available as well in the Highlands.

Ray Woodward, through Drive A Boat Canada, is offering a seven to eight hour course in this area. The Minden course will be held in the former council chambers at the municipal office. Woodward is still seeking a location in Haliburton.

Courses, which cost $65 and include examination and a certificate from the Coast Guard for those who are successful, are scheduled to start August 28. Ray Woodward can be reached at 457-9754.

Sunday Funday

Members of the Canning Lake Property Owners Association had to wait an extra day, but judging by the turn-out it was well worth it.

The annual lake association fun day was postponed when showers rained down Saturday, July 31, on the Ingoldsby ball diamond where the event is held. Not deterred, the next day/rain date plan kicked in complete with co-operation from the weather.

The day included a series of field games for youngsters and the young at heart, including the annual baseball game, a raffle, barbeque and lake association clothing sale. The photos on this page capture some of the excitement of the day.

Everyone loves a parade

The 135th edition of the Haliburton County Fall Fair was kicked-off in usual style this weekend with a parade through the streets of Minden. A colourful array of floats, musical bands, costumed characters and floats delighted the spectators lining the street. These photos capture some of the excitement of the fair tradition. (See next week's edition of The Times for more photos and results from the fair.)

German band weathers the storm in Haliburton

Despite what some people might have considered a somewhat daunting start to their three week visit to Canada, the Muzikzug Fanfaren of Luhe, Germany, appeared to weather whatever this country offered them. The marching band was a featured performer at the annual Haliburton Rotary Carnival, August 4.

The group, which includes musicians ages 13 to 70, was here at the invitation of the Haliburton Rotary Club. The organization heard of their visit to Canada and asked them to stop in Haliburton. The visit to the area was arranged at the beginning of the tour. They arrived in the community August 3. Members of the Rotary Club and residents of the community opened their homes for the close to 50 musicians, majorettes and chaperones, providing a place for the band members to stay, as well as

Shortly after arriving in Haliburton, and just a few hours after landing at Pearson International Airport, the band performed a concert at the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion at the Haliburton High School. While some of the members were obviously showing signs of jet-lag, the concert was received enthusiastically by the audience. The repertoire included marches, waltzes, music from the movies, medleys from light operas and musicals, folk lore, spirituals and pop tunes.

During the performance, conductor Rolf Leitmann presented Rotary President Ted Brandon with official greetings from the city of Luhe, in northern Germany. Similar presentations were made to the members of the band with the Rotary exchange students distributing Haliburton County lapel pins to each member.

This is one of a number of tours the band has taken since being formed in 1969. The trips have included tours in Europe as well as the United States. This was their first visit to Canada.

The next day, the travellers were treated to a visit to the Haliburton Forest and Wildlife Reserve where they viewed the wolf enclosure and got a taste of the Canadian wilderness.

The biggest challenge for the group came Wednesday evening when the band was scheduled to march in the annual carnival parade. As the parade started, the skies opened with a heavy downpour. Undeterred by the pelting rain, the band fell into place and marched to the end of the route, soaked to the skin. Those spectators who huddled under awnings or watched from the protection of their cars were appreciative of the band's musical ability as well as its tenacity in not letting the rain deter it.

After spending Wednesday evening in the Haliburton area, they travelled on to Parry Sound. The tour also included stops in Sault Ste. Marie, Monte Ste. Anne, Quebec City, Cambridge and St. Catharines.

Kushog POA supports Hawk Lake log chute project

Kushog Lake property owners have made a $200 donation to help with the rehabilitation of the Hawk Lake Log Chute. The donation was made at the organization's annual meeting, August 7 at the Stanhope Fire Fighters Hall.

Stanhope museum chair, Carol Moffatt, addressed the meeting, explaining the historical significance of the chute, which is located just below the dam at Big Hawk landing. The chute was used up to the early 1930s, when timber was floated south to mills on the Gull River watershed. She noted that it is one of three remaining log chutes in the province and the only one that has been continuously maintained. "It has been rebuilt in 1947 and 1971, but once again it is falling apart," she told the audience.

Moffatt said that application has been made to the federal Millennium Fund for support for the restoration. She told the members that the money will be used not only to rebuild the chute, but to add adequate parking, build a picnic area with washrooms, and create interpretive panels which will provide an historical outline of the chute. Trail access along the chute will also be improved, giving visitors a chance to see it from a variety of angles. The project is estimated to cost $100,000.

She explained that the committee has received copies of the blueprints of the 1947 restoration and will be using these to ensure authenticity. "We are also looking for photographs of the original log chute to help us with this project," she said.

According to Moffatt, the Halls and Hawk Lake Property Owners have endorsed the project and made a donation to the cause. She noted that the Kushog Lake executive had provided a letter of support for the project and she encouraged individuals to send letters as well. (They can be sent in care of the Stanhope Municipal office, R.R. # 2, Minden.)

An exhibit outlining the history and the project was on display for the members to examine during the break in the meeting.

Foundation appeal

Karen Poole, a member of the association who was recently appointed to the Haliburton Highlands Health Services Foundation Board of Directors, reminded the members that construction of the new facilities in Minden and Haliburton is under way along with the fund-raising campaign. Noting that last year the association made a donation to the campaign she encouraged her fellow members to contribute. "We need your personal pledges to see the new construction through to completion," she commented.

Buckslide road gets $60,000 upgrade

Reeve's report

Stanhope Reeve Eleanor Harrison was in attendance to bring the members up to date on township activities and respond to questions.

She congratulated the Kushog Lake Association, describing it as one of the best informed in the municipality. She noted that a representative of the group, usually Christine Macartney, was always in attendance at council meetings, to monitor the activities.

Harrison advised the audience to expect their tax bills sometime before the end of the month. The municipal portion of the taxes has increased .1% she said.

She also said the council plans to spend $60,000 repairing Buckslide Road, noting that it has been one of the rougher roads in the township and that the county will not be taking it over as was once anticipated. The municipality will put a tar and chip top on the road after it is graded. She suggested the expenditure should reduce the maintenance costs of the road and give it a surface which will last longer.

"We are a long way from making any final decision about amalgamation," Harrison said, explaining that earlier talks with Sherborne Township representatives had broken off. She said the council is now meeting with the municipality of Dysart. "We share a lot in common with Dysart," she said referring to road services on the Barry Line. She said before any decision is taken by the municipality, the council would carefully examine what she described as the "balance of power" across the county.

She also reported the members of County Council are expected to meet with MPP Chris Hodgson soon to get a sense of where the province stands on the issue of amalgamation. She noted that Haliburton and Victoria are the only two counties in which some form of amalgamation has not taken place since the Conservative government took office. She said she didn't feel the pressure from the provincial government was as great as it had been in the past. Any decision to amalgamate should be made locally, "We want to be masters of our own destiny," the reeve commented.

The search is also on for an answer to the dwindling supply of landfill sites in the county. While the township does not anticipate a crisis, she noted there is growing concern county-wide about where residents will put their garbage. She suggested that a county-run mega dump may be the solution.

Harrison also reminded the members of the upcoming textile collection day, which is being held in conjunction with Peterborough Green-Up. The service will be available at one location in Stanhope, the Maple Lake landfill site, from August 25 to September 8.

She was also asked if the township was planning a hazardous material clean-up, where old paint cans, lawn and garden chemicals, etc. can be disposed. Harrison pointed out that to have mobile collection equipment visit the area, even for a short time, was a very expensive process. This is another issue under consideration by the county government.

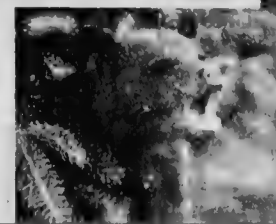

New executive

The association elected its new executive for the coming year. The members include: president Norma Goodger; secretary/treasurer Harvey Beadle; vice president Leo O'Hara; and directors, municipal affairs Christine Macartney; social Shirley Woods; road maps and signs Ron Vivian; environment Wayne Black and directors at large, John Lippolis, Margaret Draper, Judith Auger and Bob Johnstone.

TSW report

The following report was issued by the Trent-Severn Waterway staff on August 17.

Though forecasts have been calling for rain for the last week, no significant amount of rainfall has been received in the Kawartha lakes region. However, by the morning of August 14, about 25 mm of rain was recorded in the Haliburton region. The threat of rain has brought with it overcast conditions, which have reduced the amount of water lost from the lakes due to evaporation.

The lakes in Haliburton operated by the Trent-Severn waterway averaged 63.6 per cent on August 16. This was a decline of 2.8 per cent from the previous week and left them at 3.7 per cent higher than the levels recorded last year at this time.

Residents enjoy Lady Muskoka cruise

Hello everybody! How was your week? We have had some good times over the last few days. Last Thursday evening, August 12, we were wonderfully entertained by Doris, Don, Norm and Lloyd. What a great time we had with good old country music. Edna McElwain got into the swing of things playing her spoons and we thoroughly enjoyed watching some of our visitors join in some square dancing. All in all a fun evening.

The following morning we welcomed Jack and Ruth Worthington and in the afternoon at our Happy Hour we were pleased to have Northern Jam with us. Gord Kidd was here also and joined in with his guitar. On Saturday afternoon we were happy to sit and listen to Gord Kennedy. As you can see we are very fortunate to have so many wonderful musicians who visit and entertain us so well. Our thanks to all of them.

Although Pastor Dan Millard was on vacation we were still able to participate in our Sunday Chapel with Kelly Harpley leading the service. Ruth Worthington was also here with her friend. We thank them for their assistance.

On Monday a full bus left for Muskoka to enjoy a cruise on the Lady Muskoka. Those who attended reported having a fabulous time. The weather co-operated somewhat, although it was mainly cloudy the rain held off and temperature was just right. The sun even managed to come out toward the end of the trip. Everyone was impressed with the full dinner served on board, especially the dessert (Cherry Cheesecake). They ate so much it was suggested that they should swim home for exercise, but of course everyone thought that was a joke so they boarded the bus for the trip home. Thanks go to the volunteers and staff that made this trip possible.

Reverend Davis was present for our Tuesday morning Chapel Service. Quite a few of us attended. Our thanks to Reverend Davis for taking time to be with us.

Wednesday evening we had the Hillbillies with us for our Pub night. We enjoyed their music and thank them for coming.

During the last few days we have seen some special visitors here. Corinne Bonneville was happy to have some family visitors from California. They brought her a single stem rose from their garden. It was a beautiful deep pink and a lot of us commented we had never seen such a big bloom. Winnie Barnum enjoyed a visit from her niece who lives in Peterborough. Along with the niece was the niece's daughter from Virginia. Also, a lot of us enjoyed the visit of the three Jack Russell puppies. Linda Robertson and her son Dale brought them in to show us. They were so lively and absolutely adorable.

We said goodbye to Kelly Harpley and welcomed back Janet Donnery. Kelly was with us for a short time while Janet was away. We will miss Kelly but are glad to hear that she plans on popping in for a visit now and then. Of course we are certainly happy to have Janet back with us.

We have heard of the death of Roger Pearsell. Roger was a resident here at one time. Our sympathy goes out to his family and friends. Our newly transplanted roses are doing very well, thanks to the Upton family. We appreciate them for looking after them for us. We send our get-well wishes to Therm Varty who is in hospital. Hope you're feeling better soon.

As we write this Marg is in the kitchen with Peggy Packer and Lilian Harrison. Once again they are tempting us with their baking. Today they are creating raspberry bars and Boston cookies. The Boston cookie recipe in one of Bessie Burke's. Of course we will try and sample them. Our tea party today is scheduled to be hosted by the family of Bessie Burke. We are looking forward to this and will have to tell you about it next week.

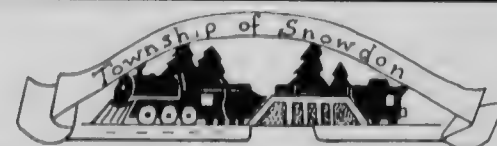

We have two birthdays coming up. Grace Atkinson who celebrates on August 25, and Marion Chinery on the 28th. Happy Birthday ladies. Guess that's all for now. We will catch you next week. Bye

NOTICE

HALIBURTON COUNTY TEXTILE DRIVE

The municipalities in Haliburton County have arranged for a textile drive in the County through a non-profit organization called Peterborough Green-Up. This program allows unwanted clothing and textiles to be re-used or recycled rather than being disposed of in our landfills. It is an excellent opportunity to clear out those closets, corners and back rooms of unwanted clothing and materials.

Most of the clothing collected by Peterborough Green-Up is re-distributed through the Salvation Army thrift stores or other programs. Items in very poor condition are recycled into rags.

Each municipality will be posting the location of its drop-off depot at the landfill(s) and municipal office. The program will be running from August 25 to September 8 with the following types of items accepted:

All types of clothing

Hats and caps

Gloves and mittens

Purses and handbags

Pillowcases and bed sheets

Linens and towels

All types of paired footwear

Belts and suspenders

Ties and scarves

Drapes and curtains

Blankets and sleeping bags

Clean rags and large material scraps

Items must be clean, dry and sealed in plastic bags for drop off. Wet clothes turn mouldy and must be landfilled, so items must not be dropped off in cardboard boxes or paper bags.

Items that can not be accommodated by this program include carpets, mats, mattresses, or housewares of any kind. Please check at your landfill or municipal office for locations and hours of operation of the textile depots.

Around the County Town

by Nora Snyder (call 286-4450)

This was a week where there has been no phoned-in requests for an announcement of an event in this column. I have found a pattern of one week on and one week off for requests, but I can't recall when there ever has been none at all. There is lots going on.

Referring to the tribal idea I wrote about in last week's column, there appears to be some who have a lack of pride in our tribe, which surfaces on occasion. We must acquire a positive attitudes about ourselves!! This is a beautiful county full of a diverse and interesting citizenry. When I first moved to town, six years ago, someone told me everything I could want is right here; I just had to look for it. She was right. I appreciate that I have to spend time looking. Things that are important are worth the effort. There are so many people here doing so much to promote us and also providing adventures, accommodation, services, there are artists and artisans, in other words, everything is here to make this a great place in which to live and to visit. Never is there 'nothing'. Keep your ears, eyes open and know your sources!!

Congratulations again to Phil Graham for the honours heaped on him from Environment Canada. Phil is surely one of our treasures!! His dedication to the collecting of weather data is a credit to his character!! The stats revealed were very interesting. The least snowy winter was the winter I arrived here. That's not what I remember!! It might not have been snowy but it was cold!!

I hope everyone enjoyed the Haliburton County Fair last week-end. What a great gathering of people!! All the events!! All the talent!! All the fun!! A great way to celebrate!!

I was up in Huntsville last week meeting with my daughter who had a day off from her camp cook job and I saw a pillow with a design of an exclamation mark on it. I almost bought it but my budget restraints wouldn't let me do it!! It was fun to contemplate!!

Have another great week in this place in which we are lucky to abide!!

Scoring News

The Minden Legion, Thursday night Euchre, August 12, saw Marie Dennie and Marg McAfee win most lone hands. Verna McDonald and Frank Campagnolo won the high scores of the night. Norm Lee and I'm afraid I can't read the woman's name, took the low scores. Other prizes were won by Jean Scadden, Milt Fletcher, Garth Windsor and another name I couldn't read!! Maybe the mystery names will be revealed next week!!

Cribbage at the Minden Legion last Monday evening saw the winners of Verna McDonald and Elva Paisley. Marie Dennie won the draw.

Senior Bid Euchre at the same Legion on Tuesday, saw a very large turnout for a great afternoon of cards. The top scorers were Gord Swain, Norm Lee, Elva Paisley, Verna McDonald and Helen Henderson. Ida Young found the hidden score and Gladys Wruth was the one and only moonshot winner.

Katie Parker phoned in the results for the Friendship Club at St. Paul's last Monday afternoon and shyly said she had won lone hands!! She went on to say that Bill Mosley was high man and Irene Fuhr was high woman. Ellie Langpohl found the hidden score. The low scores were taken by Laura Carnegie and Isabel Cherwenka (someone has to be there!!) But Iris Taylor won the 50/50 draw!!

Club 35 held their summer Bid Euchre night on Friday the 13th without any mishaps!! Dorothy Walters, Rob Evans, Milt Fletcher and Alvin Cowen won the moonshots. The high pinks were: Mary Pearson, 308; Sharon Evans, 281; Marg Fletcher, 257. The high whites were: Alvin Cowen, 298; Darryl Stiver, 278; Stan Walters, 253. Barry Thrash found the hidden score.

Monday night Euchre at Club 35, on August 16, saw Mary Schad win the 50/50 draw. Murray Daniels won lone hands. Mary Pearson and Bob McConnell were the top scorers with Marianne Stepanek and Mary Schad the lows. Helen Windsor won baloney!!

Wednesday night, Bid Euchre at Stanhope, had the following top scorers: Lottie Ruttan had a score of 247; Dorothy Walters, 255; Barry Thrash, 269; Sharon Evans, 274, and on the very top, Rob Evans with 301. Two moonshots were won that night also.

Duplicate Bridge at Echo Hills on Thursday, August 12. North/South: first with 62%, Sharon Carruthers and Nick Lehoczy; second, Kelly Metcalf and Vange Croucher with 51%. East/West: first, with 60% Norma Crewson and Vic Matthews; second, Joyce Burtch and Joan Galley with 52%.

Monday, August 16, at Echo Hills, playing Duplicate Bridge, Nick Lehoczy and Mike Collins were first with 66%; Almarie and Vincent Fahay, second with 57%; third, Pat Hannah and Carol McCord with 54%.

At Stanhope, last Tuesday afternoon, Vange Croucher and Ross Fletcher bid and made the one small slam. At the end of the day the top scorers were: fourth, Mary McNeice with 4640; third, Grace Smyth with 4760; second, Betty Roszell with 4830 and in the top spot, Lillian Mahaffy with 5450. As unbelievable as it may seem, Ross Fletcher won this week's E.I.F. Award!! He accepted the trophy with his usual grace and charm!! A new award was presented this week and the premiere recipient of the Sistiis award was Senora Edith Burch!! What a fun group!!

From Park Lane, last Wednesday afternoon, at the Duplicate Bridge Tables, in North/South: first with 61%, Jack and Willie Cox; second were Joan Galley and Lourene Scott with 56%. East/West: Dorothy McIntyre and Grace Smyth in first with 65% and Joyce Burtch and Norma Crewson second with 59%.

Keep up the fun!! See you here next week!!
